

Supported Housing in Broadstairs

Buckmaster House

The Abbeyfield Promise:

We make time so you can enjoy life

Making time for our residents is at the heart of everything we do.

This promise means we have the time to share friendships, understand individual needs and make every day more fulfilling – so everyone feels valued, content, cared for and safe.

Abbeyfield Supported Housing

Our Supported Housing services are designed to help you lead your life your way and offer security, independence and peace of mind.

Choosing to live in an Abbeyfield Supported House means you'll enjoy your own comfortable room, whilst having the choice of companionship in shared lounges and dining areas.

At Buckmaster House, all of the bedrooms are fitted with an on-call system, and for extra peace of mind there are staff on-site 24 hours a day.

Care can be provided by an external agency at extra cost, should this be required.

Welcome to Buckmaster House

Set in extensive grounds with wonderful sea views of the English Channel, our impressive Abbeyfield house is located in the heart of the picturesque coastal town of Broadstairs. Our late Victorian purpose built residential home combines the grace of an era past, with all the conveniences of the present.

At Abbeyfield we offer a home from home experience and our staff are crucial to creating this warm, friendly and welcoming environment.

Delicious, daily home cooked meals are provided for you by our qualified kitchen staff, who offer a wide range of home cooking to suit all tastes and dietary requirements and this includes afternoon tea with freshly made cakes every day.

All household bills are included in the cost and the cleaning and laundry is undertaken for you, leaving you free to enjoy your time.

If you choose to live with us, you'll enjoy your own comfortable room, socialising in shared lounges and dining areas, and stunning grounds to relax in and enjoy the coastal views.

Steeped in history, Buckmaster House was opened in 1895 by Jane Buckmaster as a charity, it was purpose built as a residential home to provide recuperation for ladies in Brixton. Though its use has changed over the years, the distinguished home continues to offer the highest standards to its residents and combines the grace of an era past with all the conveniences of the present day.

Elegance and superb craftsmanship is evident throughout the House and many of the original features are still visible today particularly in the main hall with its sweeping staircase and dome, which provides a suitably impressive entrance to Buckmaster House.

There are 21 en-suite rooms, two of which are double rooms designed for couples, and are all furnished to a high standard.

The main communal lounge has plenty of comfortable chairs to relax and socialise in, whilst our wonderful sun lounge is small and quiet, but boasts glorious south-facing views over the sea and gardens. There is also a lovely sun terrace where you can sit with friends or visitors and admire the scenery.

Our large, bright, dining room also has sea views and provides a delightful setting for your meals.

The House has lift access and parking on site. A short trial stay can be arranged, on request.

Happiness starts with you

We believe in enjoying later life and an Abbeyfield house will always offer you the opportunity to get involved in activities and entertainment – which is a big part of life in our houses.

Although the thriving town of Broadstairs offers a large variety of things to see and do, we also organise regular activities for the residents, so there is always something to keep you occupied.

- Visits from a local hairdresser and beautician
- Gentle exercise classes
- Bingo and quizzes
- Knit and natter club
- Mobile library service

We have established connections with people in our local community and a group of Volunteers offer various activities and intergenerational opportunities. Variety is the key to any community and we are proud to offer this at Buckmaster House.

Your safety and quality assurance

You can't enjoy peace of mind without trust. This is why Buckmaster House is registered and regulated by Homes England.

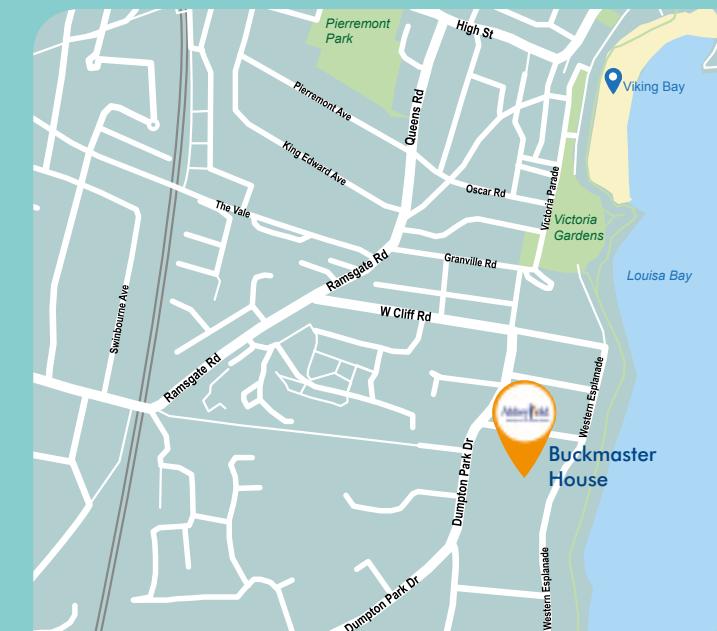

But our quality control doesn't end there – the opinions of our residents matter too. We have regular resident and family meetings, so we can get feedback on how we can improve our service at the home.

Your community

Buckmaster House is located in the beautiful and bustling coastal town of Broadstairs, boasting wonderful views of the English Channel.

Local amenities are just a short distance from the house, such as restaurants, a supermarket and a variety of shops. Viking Bay and the stunning Victoria Gardens are also within walking distance.

There are excellent transport links by bus and nearby Broadstairs train station, should you wish to explore further.
