Sheltered Housing in Garstang

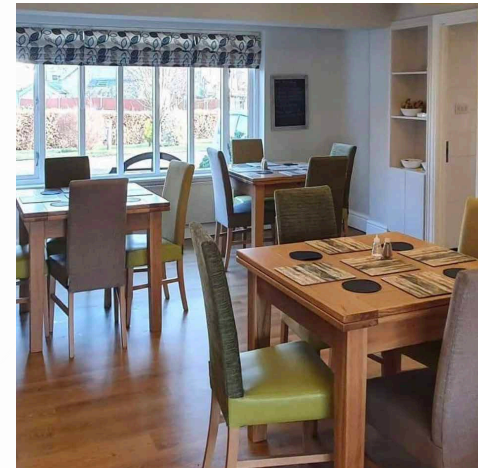

Welcome to Abbeyfield House

Peacefully overlooking the Lancaster Canal, our Abbeyfield house is located in the charming market town of Garstang.

At Abbeyfield we offer a home from home experience and our staff are crucial to creating this homely, friendly and welcoming environment.

Delicious, daily home-cooked meals and everyday housekeeping are organised and all your household bills are included in the cost, leaving you free to enjoy your time.

If you choose to live with us, you'll enjoy your own comfortable room, socialising in shared lounges and dining areas, and a garden with attractive views to relax in.

Happiness starts with you

We believe in enjoying later life and will always offer you the opportunity to get involved in activities and entertainment – which is a big part of life in our houses.

We organise regular activities for the residents such as coffee and cake days, games afternoons and a visiting library, as well as various social events within the house.

“I am very happy to be here in a comfortable house with a lovely garden and surroundings.”

Abbeyfield features

Abbeyfield House in Garstang was built in 1993 and opened by the Duke of Westminster.

The house has 11 ensuite rooms and one flat. We have a large communal lounge and dining area which are both homely and great places to enjoy some home cooked food and spend time together enjoying board games or just having a chat. We have recently had some refurbishment work done to the house with an extension to our dining room, which has been an exciting addition to the house.

We have bright well kept gardens surrounding the house with benches for you to sit and enjoy the views.

Your retirement

When you live with us you are part of our community and the wider local community too.

Our professional staff team are supported by a number of committed volunteers. Some just want to spend time with you and pop in for a cup of tea and a chat, whereas others get involved in the day-to-day life of our community.

Your safety and quality assurance

You can't enjoy peace of mind without trust.

This is why Abbeyfield House is registered and regulated by Homes England.

But our quality control doesn't end there – the opinions of our residents matter too. We have regular resident and family meetings, so we can get feedback on how we can improve our service at Abbeyfield House.

“These aspects of life at an Abbeyfield House sets us apart from other providers.”
