Abbeyfield House

Sheltered Housing in Banbury

Welcome to Abbeyfield House

Located on the corner of a quiet residential close, our Abbeyfield house is just a short distance from Banbury's bustling town centre.

At Abbeyfield we offer a home from home experience and our staff are crucial to creating this homely, friendly and welcoming environment.

Delicious, daily home-cooked meals and communal area housekeeping are organised and all your household bills are included in the cost, leaving you free to enjoy your time.

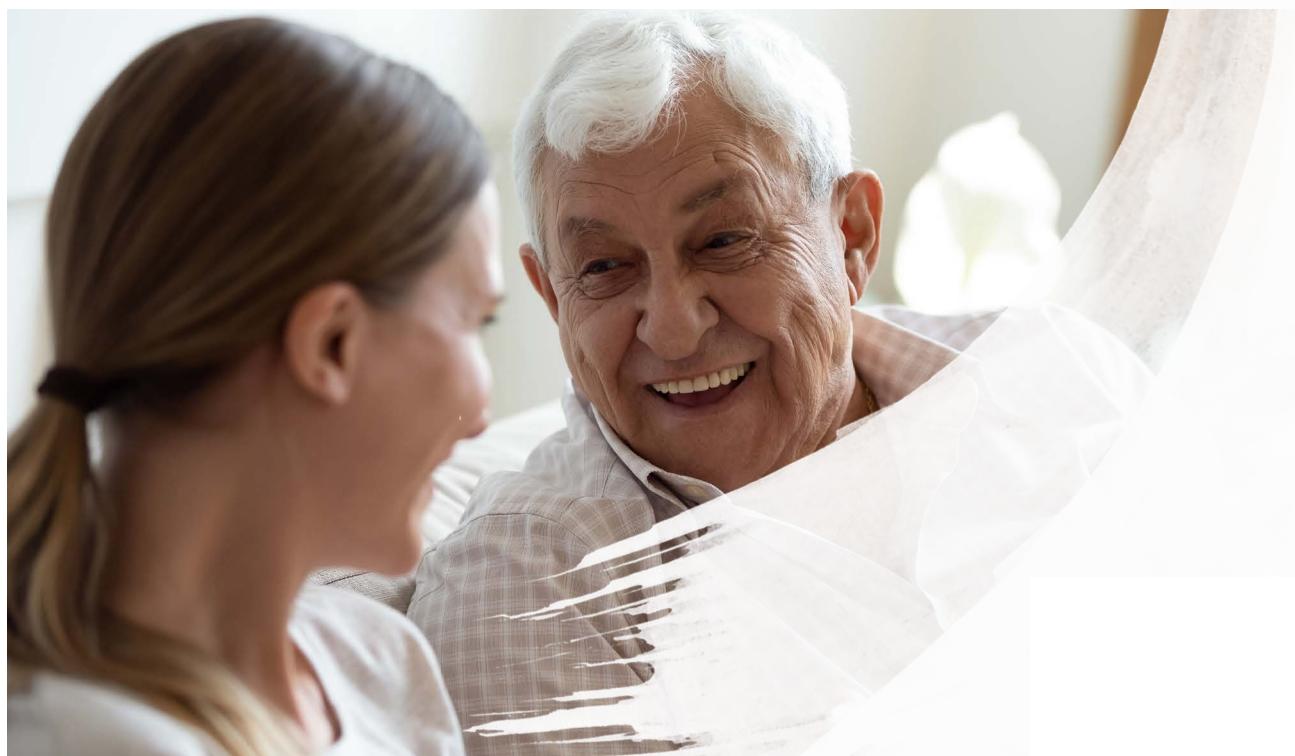

If you choose to live with us, you'll enjoy your own comfortable room, socialising in shared lounges and dining areas, and a beautiful garden to relax in.

Happiness starts with you

We believe in enjoying later life and an Abbeyfield house will always offer you the opportunity to get involved in activities and entertainment – which is a big part of life in our houses.

“I am very happy to be here in a comfortable house with a lovely garden and surroundings.”

Abbeyfield features

Built in 1991, Abbeyfield House consists of nine studio rooms all with a kitchenette and wet room. We have a beautiful conservatory, built with money donated by The Quakers, who were previous residents of the house, which overlooks our beautiful garden and is the perfect place to catch up with residents, family, friends or to sit quietly enjoying the view.

Your retirement

When you live with Abbeyfield you are part of our community and the wider local community too.

Connected by our staff and volunteers, people who choose to share their time with you organising popping in for a cup of tea and a chat, or being involved in the day-to-day life of our house.

We have established connections with people in our local community who offer varied conversation and a chance to compare different experiences. Variety is the key to any community and we're very proud to offer this at Abbeyfield House.

Your safety and quality assurance

You can't enjoy peace of mind without trust.

This is why Abbeyfield House is registered and regulated by Homes England.

But our quality control doesn't end there – the opinions of our residents matter too. We have regular resident and family meetings, so we can get feedback on how we can improve our service at Abbeyfield House.

“These aspects of life at an Abbeyfield Sheltered House sets us apart from other providers.”

The Abbeyfield Promise:

Time to enjoy life

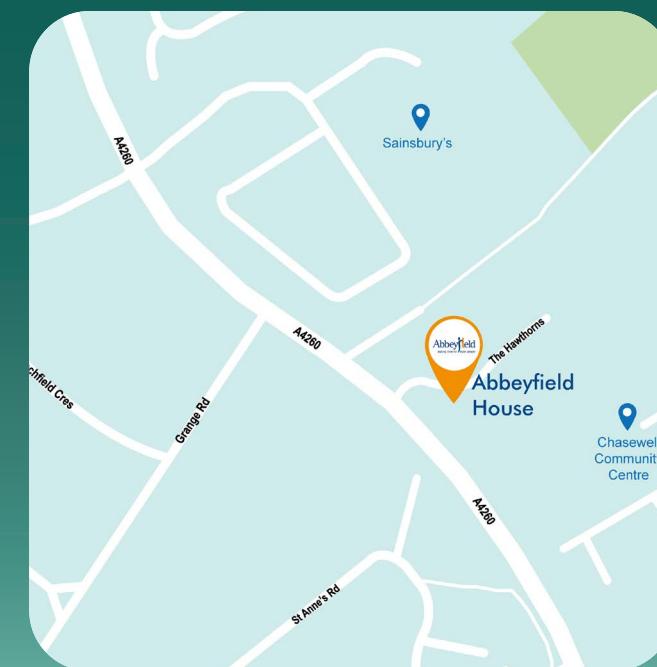

Making time for you is at the heart of everything we do.

Our promise means that your time is well spent on the things that matter; lasting friendships, understanding your individual needs and making every day fulfilling - so that you feel valued, content, cared for and safe.

Your community

Abbeyfield House is situated in Banbury, a picturesque and historic market town which sits on the River Cherwell in Oxfordshire.

Situated in an idyllic location, we've got excellent transport links with a bus route on the main road outside of the house which takes you into the town or nearby Oxford. We have a supermarket just a couple of minutes walk away and a GP surgery and dentist also within walking distance. Local churches and pubs are less than a mile from the house as well as the train station, with trains going to London or Birmingham.

Please do get in touch

Whether you're considering Abbeyfield House for yourself or a family member, if you've just started exploring options or are ready to take the next step, we are here to talk.
